

■ Exams pledge

THE director general of Reformation and Rehabilitation yesterday said it is taking all procedures to provide the required facilities to enable inmates enrolled in different educational levels to sit for their final exams in co-operation with the Education Ministry. The directorate added that it had eliminated all barriers to facilitating the registration and providing the exams' textbooks as part of the education rights of all inmates per the rules.