

Impersonators are arrested

TWO people have been arrested for impersonating police officers and breaking into an apartment in Juffair.

The Capital Governorate Police Directorate revealed that the two individuals, aged 33 and 48, also stole mobile phones and money from the property.

According to the Interior Ministry, an investigation was launched immediately following notification of the incident.

"The police began search, investigation and collection of evidence which resulted in the identification of the two men," said the Interior Ministry in an official statement.

"The Capital Governorate Police Directorate indicated that necessary legal measures are being taken to refer the case to the Public Prosecution."
