

The role of the Bahraini Press in bringing about cooperation between security men and citizens

This study emphasises the key role the Bahraini Press could play to strengthen cooperation between security men and the people. It shows that the Press can do a lot in this respect such highlighting security problems and the tremendous efforts exerted by security bodies to prevent crime and check its effects.

The study aims to explore ways of strengthening cooperation between the two sides and affirms that the level of current cooperation is still low. It also looks into ways of addressing this weakness to enable the local Press to play a bigger role, and makes a number of recommendations to achieve this goal.
