

■ Drugs haul

THREE people have been arrested by the anti-narcotics police at the General Directorate of Criminal Investigation and Forensic Evidence for selling a narcotic substance, known locally as shabu.

An investigation led police to two men and a woman, aged between 36 to 44, and described as Asian, and their alleged haul of narcotics and drugs money. The case has been referred to the Public Prosecution.